SYMBIO

THE MUSICAL PHENOMENON FROM THE NORTH !

An electro hurdy-gurdy and an accordion in perfect harmony, a magical encounter between folk and electronic music, for a sound that is at once ethereal, rhythmic, and hypnotic.

A true phenomenon, the duo has performed in over 20 countries, notably in Europe, the United States, and Canada. A featured act at WOMEX (World Music Expo), winner of the Best Album of the Year award at the Swedish Folk & World Music Awards. The duo has just released their fourth album, “Sonder”, celebrating 15 years in the business. A musical “UFO” to be discovered without hesitation...

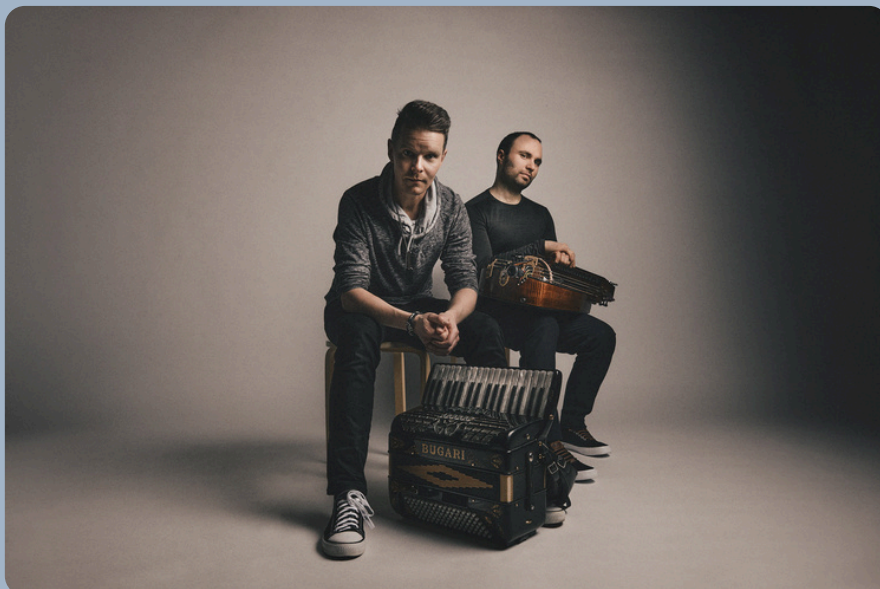

THE ARTISTS

JOHANNES GEWORKIAN HELLMAN

Winner of numerous prestigious awards, Johannes is considered one of the greatest hurdy-gurdy players of his generation. Trained at the Royal Conservatory of Music in Stockholm, the Sibelius Academy in Helsinki, and with leading figures in contemporary hurdy-gurdy music, he approaches his instrument in a unique way. Through his playing and compositions, Johannes constantly pushes the boundaries of the modern hurdy-gurdy, firmly establishing this instrument in the 21st century.

LARS EMIL ÖJEBERGET

Winner of the “Accordionist of the Year” award, has established himself as one of Sweden’s most original accordionists. Drawing inspiration from diverse musical styles (folk, pop, jazz, classical) and with a background in sound engineering, he explores the sonic possibilities of the accordion, constantly pushing its limits and giving it a modern and unexpected expression. He is also a highly sought-after composer and arranger in the recording, radio, and film industries.
