

IRELAND

DELYRA

THE REVELATION OF THE IRISH SCENE

Delyra is THE Irish band whose reputation is currently exploding!

Deeply rooted in tradition, yet incredibly modern, these three combine their individual talents to create a sound that has resonated with peat bogs and Irish pubs, while also being incredibly energetic and contemporary. Delyra explores Irish tradition with finesse, but with captivating arrangements. The result is a unique sound, rooted yet current, a meeting point between heritage, innovation, power, and subtlety.

THE ARTISTS

ÉILIS MURPHY

a virtuoso of the concertina, her refined and expressive playing brings melodic warmth and authenticity to Delyra's sound. She grew up in County Clare and, from childhood, was immersed in the musical traditions of Ireland's west coast. Éilis has been performing on stage throughout Europe since the age of 17 and is recognized as one of the finest concertina players.

CHRIS LEONARD

a powerful and warm voice, a captivating stage presence, and undeniable charisma... With his rocker persona, Chris draws the audience into the heart of Delyra's songs. Gifted with an innate instinct for storytelling and arrangement, he crafts songs and pieces that are both deeply traditional and imbued with a rare vitality and modernity.

ADAM KELLY

a former member of the legendary band "Fureys", Adam has forged a complex musicality and infectious energy. His playing combines precision, strength, and vitality. With his mastery of the banjo, he anchors Delyra's sound while infusing it with a rhythmic dynamism that propels Chris's arrangements.

THE BAND

Éilis Murphy : accordion

Chris Leonard : vocals, guitar, bouzouki
