BRITTANY

DISKAR

THE REVELATION OF BRETON MUSIC !

Diskar is a unique sound, a blend of raw energy, melodic sensitivity, and an openness to world music. Rooted in Breton tradition, the group draws on diverse influences from folk, Eastern, and Celtic music to enrich its sound. Driven by the bombard, jaw harp, stomp, violin, saz, acoustic guitar, and vocals, Diskar offers a sincere and warm musical journey, designed for both dancers and listeners.

On stage, the group delivers vibrant, generous, and profoundly human music.

THE ARTISTS

YANN LE GALL

has been active in the traditional Breton music scene for several years. Before joining Diskar, he played with the groups Pevar Den and Hiks, experiences that shaped his approach to Fest-Noz (traditional Breton dance parties) and enriched his musical world. He is influenced by Breton music, folk, and sounds from around the globe.

LAURENT DACQUAY

brings a melodic sensibility honed by a rich background in Breton music. Before joining Diskar, he played with Skeduz and accordionist Christian Maes, developing a musical universe open to traditional, folk, and Eastern influences. His violin and saz playing contributes to Diskar's unique identity.

GAËL LEFÉVÈRE

trained on the bombarde with Hervé Le Lu of the group Carré Manchot, drawing inspiration from Breton tradition as much as from folk music and sounds from elsewhere. Within Diskar, his energy helps create a vibrant and warm music, designed for dancing, sharing, and emotion.
