LALOY & LE TRON DUO

These two legends of the diatonic accordion have been playing together for almost 20 years.

A rare friendship and complicity, for an exceptional concert full of virtuosity, energy and sensitivity. The best in diatonic accordeon...

THE ARTISTS

DIDIER LALOY

Didier is a “star” of the diatonic accordion! Recently celebrating 30 years of career with a symphonic orchestra and 80 musicians, he is a true musical chameleon, capable of passing from jazz to rock, from trad to pop... Joe Cocker contacted him for a project, and since then Didier has multiplied his musical collaborations: Marc Perrone, José Van Dam, the Constantinople ensemble, Manu Katché, Liam O Maonlai, LAIS...

BRUNO LE TRON

THE French reference in diatonic accordion. After years of folk dance and festou-noz, Bruno debuted his professional career with the references of “trad” : Evelyne Girardon and Jean Blanchard. Alongside them he participated in the creation of shows combining theater, music and traditional songs. In 1990 Bruno released the cult album “Valhermeil” while simultaneously receiving his teaching diploma for diatonic accordion.

With his combination of sensitivity and energy, he has performed in thousands of concerts and folk dance sessions on French and international stages, with groups like Maubuissons, Vertigo, TREF : Accordion Samurai et Initium...

Bruno continues to compose pieces, many of which have become classics of the genre. His duet with the Belgian diatonic star, Didier Laloy, was a logical step: the culmination of a long friendship and musical complicity, for the great pleasure of lovers of the diatonic accordion...

Didier has recorded twenty albums under his own name and participated in another 230 recordings! In 2003 he finished in second place in the Eurovision Song Contest with the Urban Trad group! He has a particular fondness for his duo with Bruno Letron, because the latter was his very first accordeon teacher. Today Didier is considered to be a major figure in the innovation of the diatonic accordeon in Europe. With his inimitable style, he doesn't play the accordion: he plays Laloy!
